It shall be the individual responsibility of each yacht to decide whether or not to start or to continue to race, by evaluating carefully the weather conditions and all risk factors. Even if a boat has entered in the Regatta, it doesn't mean that it is able to sail. A boat which retires from the race must immediately inform the Organizing Committee (phone number +39 3318195186). Competitors are warned that the organization cannot grant assistance to every yacht during the race.

9) SECURITY-TRACKING GPS

9.1 The safety of the boat and its crew is responsibility of the owner, OR of one of its representatives, OR of the skipper, who must assure the good conditions of the yacht, of the mast, of the sails, of the tools and of the on-board equipment.

The owner must assure that his crew is able to participate in the regattas.

9.2 Each sailor must wear a life jacket during the race. All boats must be followed by a personal tender boat which must be able to rescue and host – if necessary – all members of the crew and must exclusively refer to its own yacht.

9.3 Each boat taking part in the regatta must download the application for the tracking gps system (on one or more devices on board).

A notice will be posted concerning installation procedures. Time at some marks can only be measured through the Kwindoo tracking gps application.

If a boat will not round all the marks, it will be protested.

Smartphone application Kwindoo can be freely downloaded from www.kwindoo.com or from the most common marketplace of applications for mobile tools such as Apple Store and Google PlayStore.

10) YACHT CONTROL AND PROTESTS

Yachts can be checked concerning measures, security equipment and general conditions either before or after the race; the request of control will be made either verbally or posted up on the official board and it shall not be refused under pain of disqualification. Possible measurement protests have to be made complying necessary formalities within 18 hours before start.

11) PENALTY:

11.1 Every boat which takes a penalty or has retired under rule 31.2 or 44.1 RSS must inform the Race Committee by filling in the proper entry form by the protest time limit. Avoiding to do this, the penalty will not be considered valid.

11.2 Starting penalties: penalties will be applied according to the boat elapsed time.
